Maybe You're Ready for More.

This Opportunity Offers You More.

As Managing Director, you'll play a meaningful role in the growth and evolution of a specialized firm. You'll help lead strategy, strengthen client relationships, develop team members and identify opportunities.

Unlike many small firms, you'll have the support of dedicated HR, Marketing, IT, Finance and Operations professionals—giving you the resources to focus on leading the business, serving clients and growing the firm rather than trying to do everything yourself.

Why This Work Matters.

Families and fiduciaries are navigating increasingly complex estate and trust tax requirements. Our work helps bring clarity to those responsibilities and confidence that important obligations are being met.

Over the next two decades, trillions of dollars are transferring from one generation to the next. The need for specialized tax guidance has never been greater.

Specialized Guidance

Family Support

Helping families and fiduciaries navigate complex tax obligations

Historic Wealth Shift

Working at the intersection of the historic generational shift and tax responsibilities

Where You're More than a Tax Preparer.

You are a leader.

You build trusted relationships.

You develop people.

You think strategically.

You are energized by growth.

You see possibilities where others see obstacles and are excited by the opportunity to influence strategy, improve operations and help create a thriving future.

Develop Teams

Influence Direction

Drive Growth

A Firm Where Culture Matters.

Collaborative Culture

You'll work with others who value curiosity, humility, connection, energy and thinking big.

Professional Growth & Impact

You'll have the opportunity to deepen your specialization, influence key decisions and make a lasting impact on the future of the firm.

Purpose-Driven Work

Every estate tells the story of a lifetime of work, planning and generosity. We believe those decisions create ripples that extend far beyond a tax return.

Take the Next Step.

If you're ready to lead, contribute strategically and help guide the future of a specialized firm, we'd love to start a conversation.
